Franklin Community Calendar features community-wide happenings

That concert in the park you saw someone share on social media? Or that lecture series you caught wind of? How about the public meeting regarding that controversial community matter everyone is discussing?

If you have ever experienced the frustration of searching the web high and low for a certain event, often uncertain of where to begin, the Franklin Chamber has created just the thing to alleviate that frustration.

The Franklin Chamber of Commerce's early 2022 launch of state-of-the-art website included something unlike anything the Franklin community has had before: a one-stop-shop Franklin Community Calendar.

The Franklin Community Calendar, powered by the Franklin Chamber, is all encompassing. From government and school district meetings to festivals, sports and recreation events, college special events and any event open to the public at large, is included. The community calendar is a single resource for the entire community, seeking to eliminate that endless search for community happenings. Finding out what is planned in and around Franklin has never been easier.

In addition to the sharing of information, the calendar technology offers seekers a variety of options. Users can sign up for events, download reminders to their personal calendars and filter views based on their preferences.

With the new website and Franklin Community Calendar, the Franklin Chamber continues its mission of being a catalyst for advancing economic growth and quality of life for its members and the community. There is no excuse to not be "in the know!"

BELIEVE AND BELONG:

make your dreams a reality

DIRECTOR'S NOTES
Rosie Chambers,
executive director

Believe in Franklin. Belong to the Chamber. No doubt you have seen our tagline in publications or on social media channels – even as a graphic on our office window. The phrase is sometimes shortened to believe and belong. I've always loved the phrase and what it stood for. When you really break it down, I get goosebumps.

Believe. Believe in Franklin, believe in yourself, believe in your business, believe in your success, believe in your resiliency, believe you can make your dreams a reality.

Belong. Belong to the Chamber, belong to the business community, belong to an organization of like-minded business owners, belong to a safe space where you can gather resources for your business to thrive. Belong to a network of individuals dedicated to making their dreams a reality.

Over the past 112 years, the Franklin Chamber has built a community of businesses and organizations in industries from non-profits, to health care, to manufacturing, to service, to retail, to agribusiness and many more. With a network of over 400 businesses and organizations who employ over 15,000 residents and neighbors, we see the impact of what we do every day. We see community organizations come together to make Franklin a stand out city in central Indiana. We see the pride of Franklin residents when they talk of the strides made in their community in recent years. We see the people who believe and belong.

Thank you for believing in the Franklin Chamber and helping us achieve our mission of advancing economic growth and quality of life for our businesses and our residents. Thank you for making the greater Franklin area such a wonderful place to live, work, play and belong!
