Pop-Up Winter Formal Dress Shop At the Franklin Branch
Library Continues Project Prom, Offers Dresses for Winter Events

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Does your teen's school have a winter formal this year? If so, then you'll want to mark your calendars for the next Pop-Up Dress Shop Dec. 2. Our librarians can help you look great for the dance without breaking the bank.

After offering hundreds of teens formal attire for proms over the past five years, for the first time this fall, JCPL offered a Homecoming Pop-Up dress shop. Shorter dresses that were not selected last spring were the first picks for thrilled bargain-hunting girls seeking the perfect Homecoming look.

The Pop-Up Winter Formal Dress Shop will be open Saturday, Dec. 2, at the JCPL Franklin Branch between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. No appointments or registration is necessary to browse the selection of free dresses. Ladies will find a great selection of longer dresses perfect for winter. This is also an opportunity to browse early for prom.

The Project Prom team is always eager to accept dress donations. Dresses can be dropped off, year-round at any JCPL Branch.
