

UCHS ANNOUNCEMENTS

August 23, 2019

School News: Homecoming shirts are on sale now through August 30th. Pick up an order form in the cafeteria or office.

Orienteering Team is having an urban course fundraiser in Liberty on September 1. Registration at the Jill Butterfield shelter from 8:30-9:45. Starts at 10:00. Cost for students is $5.00 and adults are $10.00.

Any student interested in the October driver education session in Liberty see Mr. Reister for an information sheet.

The National Honor Society will be hosting a blood drive on Friday, September 6th. If interested, sign up for a time outside Mrs. Dorrel's room. If you have questions see Mrs. Dorrel or Mrs. Hill.

If you are in need of community service hours volunteers are needed for the Founders Day Celebration September 7th and 8th. Free lunch and free drinks will be provided. Anyone interested can sign up in the front office.

Students should not be carrying prescription or over-the-counter medication with them while at school unless they have filed the proper forms with the nurse to do so. This includes emergency medications such as Epi-pens and inhalers and common medications such as Tylenol and Ibuprofen. All medications taken at school should be brought into the office and parents will need to sign the proper forms. If you have questions, please ask to talk to the school nurse, Mrs. West.
