

STATE SENATOR JOHN B. CRANE

SENATE DISTRICT 24

BIOGRAPHY

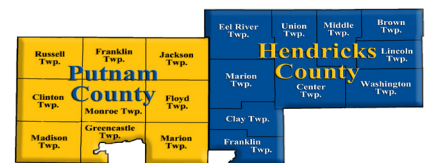

State Sen. John B. Crane has represented Hoosiers of central Indiana since 2016. As a state senator, Crane represents Senate District 24, which includes portions of Hendricks and Putnam counties.

Crane serves as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Education and Career Development, and as a member of the Senate Committees on Elections; Family and Children Services; Homeland Security and Transportation; Pensions and Labor; and Veterans Affairs and the Military.

Professionally, Crane is the founder and CEO of Sagamore Leadership Initiative, Inc., a leadership training program for next generation leaders focused on character development and social impact. Crane received a bachelor's degree in history and psychology from Taylor University and a master's degree in communications and culture from Trinity International University.

Outside the Statehouse, Crane's civic and community engagement includes involvement with Sheltering Wings, as well as being a Cook Fellow at the Acton Institute and an original member of the Colson Fellows Program. Crane has also been the program director for the Hoosier Leadership Series, which educates Indiana leaders on policy and culture.

Crane and his wife Jean are active members at Connection Pointe Christian Church. They reside in Avon with their four children.
