Authors at JCPL Presents Tomi Adeyemi at the Artcraft Theatre
New York Times Best-Selling Author of “Children of Blood and Bone” to Speak

FRANKLIN, Ind. – The Johnson County Public Library is pleased to announce that #1 New York Times best-selling author Tomi Adeyemi is the next author in our 2019 Authors at JCPL series. Join us at the Historic Artcraft Theatre Monday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m.

Tomi Adeyemi is the #1 New York Times best-selling Nigerian-American author of “Children of Blood and Bone.” After graduating Harvard University with an honors degree in English literature, she received a fellowship to study West African mythology, religion and culture in Salvador, Brazil. When she’s not working on her novels or watching BTS music videos, she can be found blogging and teaching creative writing on her website. She lives in San Diego, California.

Reserve your seat for this author event at pageafterpage.org/authors-at-jcpl. The first 50 JCPL cardholders at the door of this event will receive a free copy of “Children of Virtue and Vengeance.” Meet the author and get your books signed, as well! Barnes & Noble Booksellers will be on-site selling copies of the author's books.

The Authors at JCPL series is brought to you thanks to generous donations to Johnson County Public Library Foundation. If you would like to help ensure that great programming like this continues to be offered at JCPL, please consider making a donation to the JCPL Foundation at pageafterpage.org/jcpl-foundation.

For more information, please contact Sarah Taylor at 317-738-9835 or staylor@jcplin.org.
