

Johnson County Pregnancy Loss Support

Johnson Memorial Health is proud to partner with Beats for Bristol to offer two peer support groups focusing on perinatal loss and pregnancy after perinatal loss.

Pregnancy Loss Peer Group

For women who have experienced pregnancy loss, neonatal loss/death, stillbirth or miscarriage. This is a peer support group with peer facilitators who have also experienced pregnancy/infant loss. Facilitators have been trained in RTS, the national gold standard perinatal bereavement training.

Meets the first Tuesday of each month from 5:30-7 p.m. at Johnson Memorial Hospital, 1159 Building, Third Floor.

Pregnancy After Loss Group

For women who are pregnant again after having experienced pregnancy loss, neonatal loss/death, stillbirth or miscarriage. This is a peer support group with trained facilitators who have also experienced pregnancy/infant loss.

Meets the third Tuesday of every month from 5:30-7 p.m. Meets at Johnson Memorial Hospital, 1159 Building, Third Floor.

Grief has no timeline, and the loss of a child is something we carry throughout our lifetime. If you or someone you love has been touched by perinatal loss, these groups are available to you. For questions, please reach out to jocopregnancyloss@gmail.com or call/text 812.391.3588, or email shummel@johnsonmemorial.org.
