

Telehealth Reimbursement at a Glance in the UMTRC

	Illinois	Indiana	Michigan	Ohio
Medicare is the same in all states.	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
See: http://www.umtrc.org/resources/payers-reimbursement/medicare-telehealth-reimbursement-summary/?query=category.eq.Payers%20Reimbursement&back=Resource
Medicaid	live and interactive and store and forward	live and interactive only	live and interactive only	Defined as live and interactive only; speech language pathology may be store and forward
Certificate	No	No	No	Telemedicine certificate required
Distance Limitation	No	No	No	5 miles
Physician Medical Licensure Compact	Yes	Bill introduced; not passed out of committee	Bill introduced	Bill introduced; not passed out of committee
Prescribing via Telehealth	No reference found	Yes, subject to certain conditions for controlled substances	Yes, subject to certain conditions for controlled substances	Yes, subject to certain conditions for controlled substances
Patient Consent	No reference found	Spoke site must obtain consent; maintain at hub and spoke sites	No reference found	The originating site is responsible for obtaining informed consent
Private / Commercial Insurance Parity	Parity if insurer covers telehealth	Parity in coverage	Parity in coverage	No parity; a bill is in the works
Remote Patient Monitoring	Home uterine monitoring subject to specific criteria	Home health agencies with prior authorization and conditions	No	No
Rural Health Clinics can be:	Originating site and distant site	Originating site and distant site	Originating site and distant site	Originating site only
RHC can bill Q3014	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
RHC can bill provider fee	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
School Based Services	Cannot bill Q3014 originating fee	Cannot bill Q3014 originating fee	Cannot bill Q3014 originating fee	Cannot bill Q3014 originating fee
Telepharmacy	Yes	Yes	No reference found	No reference found

The National Telehealth Policy Center at the Center for Connected Health Policy, updates their comprehensive scan of the 50 states and District of Columbia state telehealth laws and Medicaid program policies each spring and fall.

See: <http://www.cchpca.org/state-laws-and-reimbursement-policies>

Corporate Office: 1418 N. 1000 W., Linton, IN 47441 Phone: 812-478-3919

Satellite Office: 2901 Ohio Blvd., Suite 240, Terre Haute, IN 47803

Phone: 812/478-3919 * Fax: 812/232-8602 * www.umtrc.org

Last updated August 10, 2018