

“SPRING INTO QUALITY” SYMPOSIUM

Thursday, March 14, 2019

Embassy Suites by Hilton Plainfield
6089 Clarks Creek Road
Plainfield, Indiana

8:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.	Registration, Hot Buffet Breakfast, and Exhibitor Networking
9:00 a.m.	Welcome Don Kelso, Executive Director, Indiana Rural Health Association
9:05 to 9:45 a.m.	Challenges and Successes of Growing a Rural Pharmacy Ben Laney, Pharmacist/Owner and Amanda Laney, Owner/Manager Cloverdale Drugs, Inc. and Crossroads Care Pharmacy
9:45 to 10:00 a.m.	Break and Exhibitor Networking
10:00 to 11:30 a.m.	Developing New Provider Education and Physician Burnout Solutions Facilitator: Phil Ellis, MBA, Network Director, INSRHN Indiana Rural Health Association Carrie Cadwell, PsyD, HSPP, President/CEO, Four County Counseling Center Michael Harlowe, FACHE, President, IU Health Saxony Hospital and IU Health Tipton Hospital Elaine Davis, MA, Pre-doctoral Intern Four County Counseling Center
11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.	Buffet Luncheon, Networking, Exhibitor Announcements, and Door Prize Drawings
12:30 to 1:00 p.m.	Quality Payment Program Update Don Gettinger, Quality Data Reporting Manager, Qsource
1:00 to 1:30 p.m.	Antimicrobial Resistance and Stewardship: A Primer DJ Shannon, MPH, Antimicrobial Resistance Epidemiologist, ISDH
1:30 to 2:45 p.m.	Using Drug Overdose Surveillance Data to Improve Overdose Response in Montgomery County Mandy Billman, MPH, Overdose Surveillance Systems Epidemiologist, ISDH Kayley Dotson, MPH, Overdose Surveillance Systems Epidemiologist, ISDH Paul Miller, Division Chief of EMS, Crawfordsville Fire Department Samantha Cravens, CHES, Health Educator, Montgomery County Health Department
2:45 p.m.	Adjourn