What kinds of messages work best to let each generation know that they are appreciated, either at work or as volunteers? In Part II of our “Communicating Across Generations” session, you’ll learn the best strategies to let each generation know they are welcome and valued.

Nationwide Release of Film with Franklin College Ties

When Franklin College associate professor Gordon R. Strain took a hiatus from teaching theatre during the winter of 2015 to serve as production designer for the film The Good Catholic, he hoped it would someday debut locally. His hope has become reality. The movie made its nationwide release on Friday, Sept. 8. It debuted in Indiana in Bloomington, where it was filmed, on Sunday, Sept. 17 and in Franklin at The Historic Artcraft Theatre on Wednesday, Sept. 27 at 7:30 p.m. Congratulations Gordon!
