It's summertime, which means it's time for vacations and getaways! Our Mission Moment this month is an ode to the summer vacation and the people and experiences who make vacations memorable.

If you've ever planned a vacation, you know there can be a lot of moving pieces to put together. For the individuals Tangram serves, taking a vacation can present additional challenges beyond the typical logistics.

But where some see barriers, Doris' Tangram support team saw opportunity. When her client, Doris, wanted to go to Nashville, Tangram DSP Jane decided she would make it happen.

If the pictures are any indication, the pair had tons of fun exploring Music City during their long weekend getaway! They walked around downtown, went to the Dukes of Hazzard Museum, and even got to experience the Grand Ole Opry!

"We just had a good time laughing and talking," recalled Jane. Jean, Doris' program manager said the pair "took a shuttle to downtown Nashville for the day to do shopping and listen to music that is everywhere."

We love these photos which truly document the experience of a lifetime and some beautiful memories made. Special thanks to Jane for making vacation a reality for Doris!
