

JOHNSON COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

DISPLAY AND EXHIBITS POLICY

The use, by individuals or organizations, of the library's facilities for displays and/or exhibits, other than those which pertain to the library, is not a right but a privilege which is subject to review by the library board.

The library director may grant the privilege of placing exhibits and displays in the library subject to the following conditions:

- ◆ Posters, flyers, displays, exhibits, pamphlets, brochures, leaflets, booklets, or works of art to be exhibited, displayed, or placed in the library for distribution will be subject to review by the library administration.

No outside organization or individual shall be permitted to display or exhibit any materials, leaflets, or posters which advocate the election or defeat of a candidate for public office, which advocate an affirmative or negative vote for or against any proposition, political or otherwise.

- ◆ No organization or individual shall be permitted to place in the library any box, receptacle, or canister which solicits monetary donations, nor shall any poster, flyer, brochure, or display be permitted for which the sole purpose is to advertise, advocate or solicit consideration of any product or item sold by any commercial or charitable enterprise.
- ◆ Posters or flyers announcing bazaars or programs sponsored by any local education, religious, fraternal organization or other non-profit organization may be displayed provided there is room for such displays and they are of reasonable size. Such displays shall be on a "first-come, first-served basis."
- ◆ Whenever possible, displays or exhibits shall incorporate books or materials from the library's collection which have a relationship to the subject of the display.
- ◆ The library assumes no responsibility for the preservation, protection, or possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the library are done so at the owner's risk.
