

INDEX

A

account management, 76 administrative costs, 45 administrative risks, 78 adopted children, 190
AI prompts, 10–11
annual distributions, 253 asset allocation, 126 asset location, 85–86
asset separation, non-US partner and,
224–225
AUM management, 133

B

balanced fund, 109–110 basket problem, 40–41
beneficiary designations, 206–207, 219
Berkshire Bridge strategy, 144 biological children, 190 Bona Fide Residency Test, 61, 246 bonds, stocks vs., 126 brokerage accounts, 104–105 built-in diversification, 143

C

calendar shifts, 66
Canadian Tax-Free Savings Accounts
(TFsas), 112
capital gains, 115
Chaos Budget, 9
ChatGPT, 10
children abroad, 231–233
divorce with, 238–240 family estate planning, 236–237
Head of Household, 233–235
as US citizens, 235–236 citizenship-based taxation (CBT), 55 common-law marriage, 185–186 community property, 187–188 compliance, 106
costs, 45
concentration risk, 137, 143 contracts, 29–30 cost of moving, 36–40
vs. costs of living, 40–41 costs of living, 40–41 cost wrap-up checklist, 48–51

credit cards, 25
 credit freezing, 31
 cross-border advisor, 101 cross-border financial planning, 28 cross-border portfolio, 114–117 currency needs, 77–78 currency risk, 46–48, 108, 254–255 custodian rules, 134
 customization, 132–133

D

destination reality check, as AI prompt, 11
 direct indexing, 142
 discretionary management, 140
 diversification, 107–109 dividends, 115
 divorce, 189–190
 with children abroad, 238–240
 non-US partner, 228–230
 DIY investor, 138, 140
 committed, 133–135 complexity as risk for, 132–133 first $500,000 as, 132–135 starting out as, 130–131
 double taxation, 55–57, 62, 71, 180, 210

E

Education Savings Accounts (ESAs),
 113
 80/20 portfolio, 128–129
 elective professional client, 140

emotional risk, 123
 employer-sponsored retirement plans, 76–80, 94
 estate documents, 218
 estate planning, 179–181, 197
 emotional fatigue, 217
 family, 236–237
 international. see international
 estate planning
 layers, 215–216
 as process, 214–215
 professionals, 216
 estate risks, 78
 estate tax, 191, 218
 estate tax treaties, 196–197, 199–200, 209–210, 218
 estimated tax payments, 65
 EU-domiciled ETFs, 139 exchange rate, 254–255
 exchange-traded funds (ETFs), 112, 127–138, 139–140
 exit strategies, 26
 exit taxes, 26
 expense ratio, 127
 exploratory moves. see scouting trips

F

family
 communication, 218
 conversations, 211–212
 estate planning, 236–237
 recognition, 217–218
 fear management, 122

- fee friction, 77–78
- fee-only asset management, 138
- filing
 - deadlines, 64–65
 - requirements, 56–61
- financial footprint abroad, 30–31
- financial home, stock of, 24–25
- 529 Plans, 113
- flat-fee planning, 133
- flexibility, 86
- Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs), 175
- forced heirship, 195–196, 198
- forced liquidation, 117
- foreign accounts, 251–252
- Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA), 58–59, 96, 107
 - IRS Form 8938, 70, 71, 96, 101, 224
- Foreign Bank Account Report (FBAR), 59–61, 96
- foreign corporations, IRS Form 5471, 65, 70
- Foreign Earned Income Exclusion (FEIE), 47, 57, 61, 71, 245, 246, 264
 - IRS Form 2555, 61, 71
- foreign exposure, 108
- foreign gifts/trusts, IRS Form 3520, 65, 69, 70, 110
- foreign housing exclusion/
 - deduction, 68
- foreign life insurance savings
 - policies, 112
- foreign mutual funds, 112
- foreign partnerships, IRS Form 8865, 70, 85
- foreign pension systems, 91
 - choosing wrong pension, 99–100
 - fit into real expat retirement plan, 98–99
 - landmine for US expats, 109–112
 - for locals, 92–93
 - questions to ask, 100–101
 - tax treaties, 96–98
 - three-pillar retirement system, 94–95
 - totalization agreements, 96–98
 - US tax reporting, 96
- foreign retirement accounts, 252–254
- Foreign Tax Credit (FTC), 57, 61–62, 245–247
 - IRS Form 1116, 61, 71
- 401(k), 77–80, 113
- 403(b), 77–80
- 457 Plans, 77–80
- G
- generalists, 148
- global diversification, 107–109
- global insurance. see international
 - health insurance
- guardianship, 208, 218
- H
- Hague Convention on the Civil
 - Aspects of International Child Abduction, 238

- Head of Household (HOH), 233–234
 - filing status, 234–235
- healthcare, 27, 153–154. see also health insurance
 - accounts, 175
 - critical warning, 160
 - dental and vision coverage, 174
 - in destination country, 173–174
 - portable medical file, 166–167, 173
 - private, 159–160
 - public, 158–159
 - scouting trips, 156–157
 - US benefits, using, 172–173
- health insurance
 - choosing coverage, 165–167
 - international, 155–156, 161–164
 - medical records, 166–167
 - Medicare. see Medicare
 - prescriptions, 166
- Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), 113, 175
- HMRC reporting status, 141
- housing, 27–28
 - costs, 42
 - deposit shock, 37–40
 - scams, 37–39, 43
 - temporary, 39–40, 43–44
- I
- immigration, 28
- incapacity planning, 207–208, 219
- informal relationships, 185–186
- inheritance tax, 191, 199
- insurance, 27. see also health insurance
- intentional exit planning, 253
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 58, 65
- international estate planning, 180, 184, 191, 203–204, 212
 - checklist, 217–220
 - estate documents, 218
 - family and legal recognition, 217–218
 - family communication, 218
 - incapacity and guardianship, 218
 - ownership and marital property, 218
 - tax and treaty considerations, 218
 - trusts and beneficiaries, 219
- international-friendly bank account, 24–25
- international health insurance, 155–156, 161–164
- international stocks, 125
- interspousal gifting, 225–228
- investment access risk, 135–136
- investment portfolio, 77–78, 119–120
 - advisor and professional red flags, 145–147
- DIY investor. see DIY investor
- 80/20, sample allocations, 128–129
- emotional risk, 123
- ETF-based, 127–138
- example, 130–131
- fear management, 122

- foundations of, 121–126
- hard mode workaround, 138–144
- investment framework, 135–138
- investor questionnaire, 124–125
- location, 120–121
- mathematical risk, 123
- progress over perfection, 148–149
- reality checks, 144–149
- risk capacity, 124
- risk need, 124
- risk tolerance, 122–124
- structural and planning red flags, 147
- translating risk into, 125–126
- investment restrictions, 84–85
- investor questionnaire, 124–125
- IRAs, 80–87
 - Rollover, 81, 113
 - Roth, 82–84, 113
 - traditional, 81–82, 113

K

- key information documents (KIDs), 113, 134

L

- large language model, 10
- legal paperwork, 28–29
- legal recognition, 185, 186, 217–218
- lifestyle inflation, 41
- lifestyle translation, as AI prompt, 10–11
- liquidity, 47

- local (non-US) accountant, 101
- local tax rules, 134

M

- marital property, 186–189, 218, 224, 229
- marriage
 - common-law, 185–186
 - non-US partner, 221–230
 - ownership of assets, 186
 - prior, 189–190
 - recognition, 184–186
 - recognition risk, 189
 - same-sex, 185
- married filing separately (MFS), 56, 222–223, 233–234
- mathematical risk, 123
- medical records, 166–167
- Medicare
 - eligibility, 170–171
 - for retirees, 168–169
 - stopping payments, 169–170
- MiFID II, 85, 113, 121, 134, 138–139, 144
- mixed families, 188
- multiple wills, 205
- mutual funds, 112

N

- non-US partner, 221–230
 - asset separation, 224–225
 - divorce, 228–230
 - interspousal gifting, 225–228
 - US citizenship and, 222–223

O

ownership, 183, 186–187, 218, 224–226, 229

P

partner alignment, as AI prompt, 11
passive foreign investment companies (PFICs), 95, 110, 253
IRS Form 8621, 110
personal retirement savings, 95
phantom costs, 46–48
Physical Presence Test, 61, 246 portable medical file, 166–167, 173
postnups, 189
prenups, 189
prescriptions, 166
private healthcare, 159–160 public healthcare, 158–159
punishing taxation, 110

R

rebalancing, 127
relocation cost, 36–37 remote work, 248
repatriation readiness checklist, 256–258
residency permits, 28–29 retirement accounts, 73–76, 115–116 employer-sponsored plans, 76–80 investment restrictions inside, 84–85
IRAs, 80–87
IRS Form 1099-R, 115, 116

returning expats, 244–245 complex tax year, 245–246
cost of reverse culture shock, 255–256
currency risk returns, 254–255
FEIE for final expat months, 246
foreign accounts, 251–252
foreign retirement accounts, 252–254
Foreign Tax Credit optimization, 246–247
repatriation readiness checklist, 256–258
state taxes, 247–249
US tax residency, 245 reverse culture shock, cost of, 255–256
risk capacity, 124
risk need, 124
risk profile, 135, 136
risk tolerance, 122–124
Rollover IRA, 81, 113
Roth IRAs, 82–84, 113

S

same-sex marriages, 185
scouting trips, 156–157
self-employment, 48 separate property, 187–188 setup costs, 36–37
short-term goals, 48
single will, 205
smart local currency reserves, 48 social insurance, 91, 94, 158, 163

social security contributions, 94, 98 specialists, 148 split-location lifestyles, 248 starting-point allocations, 128–129
state taxes, 26, 66, 247–249
state tax residency, 246 stepchildren, 190
stocks vs. bonds, 126
Swiss Pillar 3 retirement accounts, 112

T

tax

- advantaged account, 110, 112
- bills, 58
- complexity, 137
- efficiency, 143
- obligations, 26
- planning, 26
- provisions, 62–63
- and regulatory considerations, 77
- residency, 245
- saving strategies, 67–70
- treaties, 62, 96–98
- and treaty considerations, 218 temporary housing, 39–40, 43–44

three-pillar retirement system, 94–95
ticker, 127
time horizon, 125–126
totalization agreements, 61–63, 96–98
trade-off test, 9 traditional IRA, 81, 113
travel costs, 44–45 travel medical insurance, 157, 160

travel rewards cards, 30 trusts, 200–202, 206, 219
two tax systems, 85

U

UGMA/UTMA account, 116
UK Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs), 112
unfurnished, 43
US address, 30–31, 106–107
US assets, 48
US citizenship, 222–223, 235–236, 245
US custodians, 115–116
US expat tax accountant, 101
US financial ties, 105–106
US green card holder, 245
US stocks, 125
US tax reporting, 96
US Tax Resident, 245
US tax return, 56–57

V

values-first expat exercise, 7–10
visas, 28–29

W

W-2, 71
“Why” Readiness Checklist, 18–20
why statement, 9–10
will, 205

Z

zero federal tax, 249

