THE CONVERSATION THEY STILL NEED: COMMUNICATING WITH YOUR TWEEN OR TEEN

WHEN IT FEELS LIKE THEY'RE NOT LISTENING

Does every conversation with your teenager seem to end with one-word answers, eye rolls, or closed doors? You're not alone—and you're not powerless. Together, we'll uncover why teenagers sometimes seem distant, what happens in the adolescent brain during conversations, and how to replace lectures, interrogations, and power struggles with approaches that build trust, strengthen relationships, and keep the lines of communication open—even during difficult moments. Whatever the age of your tween or teen, you'll gain practical tools to: start conversations, listen to encourage honesty and connection, navigate conflict, set healthy boundaries, and develop trust. Because during the teenage years, your influence doesn't disappear—it simply depends on how you communicate.
