

COVID-19 Closure

Frequently Asked Questions

Anderson Public Library and Lapel Branch Library will be temporarily closed beginning Thursday, March 19 until further notice.

Will book drops be open?

All book drops have been closed until further notice. Please hold on to materials until the library reopens.

Can I bring book donations to the library during the closure?

We are not accepting donations at this time.

I placed a hold on an item, when will it be available?

No hold requests will be accepted at this time. Holds that are currently on the hold shelf will be extended.

I have items that are due. How can I return them?

Book drops are not open during the closure. Please hold onto materials until the library reopens. Due dates are extended. Please check “My Account” via our website for future dates.

Will my library card expire during the closure?

No library cards will expire during the closure. This does not include PLAC or non-resident cards. If your card has already expired, please send an email to reference@andersonlibrary.net.

How can I get a library card during the closure?

Click here to apply for a temporarily library card. After submission, a library team member will contact you with information about your new temporary card.

How can I access library resources?

- Utilize our digital resources here! Download an eBook or magazine, listen to a digital audiobook, or watch a movie! Visit the Read, Listen, Watch, Play section of our website!