

DELTA TAU DELTA

Illinois Institute of Technology - Road Programming

ROAD PROGRAMMING 2016

DINNER ETIQUETTE

Date: November 11th, 2015

Presenter: Tanya Cabrera, Associate Director & Career Coach for Minority & Undocumented Students on behalf of the Vice Provost Office

Brothers in Attendance: 12

Description: Brothers were given an opportunity to practice formal dinner etiquette as instructed by a professional career coach. Instruction included proper use of cutlery, tips on small talk, and appropriate behaviors while dining with others.

PROFESSIONAL ONLINE NETWORKING

Date: February 23rd 2016

Presenter: Brother Aaron Brown

Brothers in Attendance: 32

Description: Brothers were shown how to create a LinkedIn profile and how to arrange it in such a way that can improve chances of marketing resumes and experience to numerous employers via online networking.

CONFRONTATION MANAGEMENT

Date: January 25th 2016

Presenter: Brother Timothy Ayodele

Brothers in Attendance: 29

Description: Brothers learned how to describe numerous personality types and how to resolve confrontation or promote teamwork through the understanding of these personality types.

BASIC VEHICLE MAINTENANCE

Date: April 24th 2016

Presenter: Brother Steven Lawless

Brothers in Attendance: 31

Description: A power point presentation with a live presentation on various aspects of vehicle maintenance including how to change oil, check tire pressure, change various fluids, and replace tires.

FINANCIAL PLANNING WORKSHOP

Date: October 27 2016

Presenter: Jason Conger of Northwestern Mutual

Brothers in Attendance: 14

Description: A professional consultant provided insight and advice on personal budgeting, cash value accounts, life insurance policies, investing, and financial advising.