BIOGRAPHY

Since 2014, State Sen. Rick Niemyer has represented Senate District 6, which includes Benton and Newton counties and portions of Lake and Jasper counties. Before his election to the Indiana State Senate, Niemyer served in the Indiana House of Representatives.

Niemyer is chair of the Senate Committee on Environmental Affairs, as well as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Local Government. He also serves as a member of the Senate Committees on Judiciary and Tax and Fiscal Policy.

Outside the Senate, Niemyer is the owner and operator of Lowell Livestock Auction, and the owner and auctioneer of Niemyer Auction Service. He is also the president of the Lake County Community Services and a member of St. John United Church of Christ.

Niemyer's civic involvement goes beyond his service in the General Assembly. He is a former township trustee and assessor for West Creek Township, Lake County councilman from the Seventh District, chair of the Lake County Solid Waste Board and member of the Lake County Planning Commission and Drainage Board Advisory Committee. He is also a former member of the Tri-Creek Ambulance Service Agency.

Niemyer and his wife, Connie, reside in Lowell.
