

Aspire meeting
Wednesday May 23, 2018
Tilson HR, Greenwood
8-9:30am

Welcome Steve Jarosinski, round robin introductions

Financial Center First Credit Union- Jamie Davidson focuses on financial literacy. Walked us through wealth builder online. Offers different incentives to complete. Website is broken down in 4 stages of life- Getting started (good starting at age 11+), Early family, Saving years, and Planning for retirement. People tend to teach consumption and not savings. Financial issues are the number one reason families dissolve. FCFCU offers this to give back to the community.

Announcement from Johnson County Community Foundation about Giving Day on June 21st. It's a 24-hour event to give to 7 of the county's non-profit organizations. Donate online at: www.jccf.org on 6/21 from 12am-11:59pm and your donation will be proportionately matched from a pool of $60,000.

Dr. Carolyn Goerner- Indiana University- Generational Differences. See attached PowerPoint.

Next month, Social Media Opportunities/ Missteps with Jeff and Sean from Clever Dogs and Emily Gettum from Van Valer law firm.

Heather Devocelle- Placemaking chair. Check out activity book sample we have on display. Placemaking team has done some brainstorming and vision boards for 2018. Gathered feedback to determine subcommittees: Voice of the Community (speaker series, community conversations etc.), Home and Garden (wellness, community garden, etc.), Marketing and Sponsorship (activity book, videos, State Fair booth, etc.). Join us on June 12th from 3:30-5pm at the Center Grove School Administration building (4800 West Stones Crossing Road, Greenwood).

Eric- small groups are where a lot of the work gets done for Aspire. Ideas are exceptional, but we need volunteers. People won't get involved without a personal invite. Please invite someone to the meeting next month. Need a good mix of ages to get different opinions.

Next meeting: June 27 8-9:30am at Johnson County Museum, Franklin
