Building the Foundation: Why We Recruit (Director of Recruitment): The first in a two-part series designed for recruitment chairmen, this session will focus on the elements of strong recruitment including why we recruit and who we recruit. This session will help chapters create a foundation for an effective recruitment strategy. Recommended for recruitment chairmen and all undergraduate members. Bay

Hey Directors of Risk Education - Using the Membership Impact Study to Work Smarter, Not Harder: After learning about the data collected from the 2021 Membership Impact Study – you might be wondering how to put that information to work in your chapter. This session is recommended for officers working in risk prevention. Catalina

Volunteer Competency Session: The Fraternity continues to develop more robust and relevant training for volunteers. As we do this work, we need your assistance. In this session, we will work to identify the competencies necessary for various volunteer roles within the Fraternity. Your expertise and experience are needed and much appreciated! Marina

3:30 p.m. – 4:20 p.m.

Ed Session #2 (Officer Training):

Presidents Roundtables: A chapter president can often feel like he is on his own trying to manage all aspects of the chapter. In reality, many chapter presidents are dealing with the same challenges and opportunities. In this session, chapter presidents can talk with each other about the major issues facing their chapter and utilize others' experiences to develop a plan of action for responding to the needs of their own chapter. Recommended for chapter presidents. Redondo 1

Running an Effective Administrative Board: Overseeing the administrative board is a major responsibility for the vice president. This session will take a deeper dive into the administrative board and the vice president's role in keeping it moving. During this session, attendees will explore meeting management, goal setting, creating committees to support the work of the administrative board. Recommended for Vice Presidents. Redondo 2

	Wonderful World of Budgets: Creating and maintaining a Chapter Budget: No matter what industry you enter after graduation, it will operate off organizational budgets. Utilize your chapter's budget as an opportunity to gain experience creating and working within a financial plan. This session will focus on not only identifying the best way to create your chapter's annual budget but also how to stay current with the budget and utilize it throughout the school year. Recommended for directors of finance.	Redondo 3
	Developing Your Recruitment Toolkit: This session will take the questions we answered in the first session (Why do we recruit? Whom do we recruit? How do we recruit?) and bring them together to create a comprehensive recruitment process for your chapter. Attendees will examine the tools and strategies they can implement in their chapter to have an effective recruitment plan that extends beyond the formal recruitment process on their campus. Recommended for recruitment chairmen and all undergraduate members.	Bay
	More Than Just Door Duty - Responding to and Managing Risk in Your Chapter: Being a director of risk/manager is more than just making sure your chapter's social events are safe for your members and guests. In this session, we will review the job description of the chapter risk manager and the nuts-and-bolts responsibilities that come along with it. Attendees will learn how to identify risk management concerns—spanning from alcohol, drugs, mental health concerns, and sexual violence—and understand the role the Member Responsibility Guidelines (MRG) play in guiding their work as an officer.	Marina
	Hey Volunteers - Using the Membership Impact Study to Work Smarter, Not Harder: After learning about the data collected from the 2021 Membership Impact Study – you might be wondering how to put that information to work in your chapter. This session is recommended for volunteers.	Catalina
4:30 p.m. – 5:20 p.m.	Ed Session #3 (Officer Training): Strategic Planning for Your Chapter: One of the most difficult aspects of being a leader is creating a vision for your team and helping them move to that goal. In this session, chapter presidents will learn how to develop SMART goals for their chapter and begin the process of goal setting for their term. Recommended for chapter presidents.	Redondo 1

Ethical Decision-Making: As an officer, you will be asked to make decisions every day. Some of those decisions will impact just a few of your brothers, and some of those decisions will impact your entire chapter. Sometimes the decisions you make might benefit some people while hurting others. So how do you decide what to do? This session will explore how to utilize ethics and values in your decision-making as a chapter officer. Recommended for Vice Presidents.

Redondo 2

Beyond the Basics: Managing A/R and Effective Finance Committees (Director of Finance): One of the most time-consuming aspects of the director of finance's job is collecting money from delinquent members. This can cause a lot of frustration for the DOF, but there are ways to relieve the pain. This one-hour session will focus on the Fraternity's best practices for lowering the chapter's A/R and show how the finance committee can be utilized to relieve stress from the treasurer.

Redondo 3

Hey Directors of Recruitment - Using the Membership Impact Study to Work Smarter, Not Harder: After learning about the data collected from the 2021 Membership Impact Study – you might be wondering how to put that information to work in your chapter. Recommended for recruitment chairmen and all undergraduate members.

What Happens When Brothers Stop Being Polite and Start Being Real? (Director of Risk): Let's face it—having tough conversations with your brothers isn't always easy. Maybe your chapter isn't utilizing its honor board as it should. Maybe your upperclassmen members aren't being held to the same standards as your new members. As the director of risk management, how can you shift your chapter's culture and attitudes towards peer-to-peer accountability in a meaningful way? In this session, participants will take part in a group exercise those attendees can take back to their own chapters to spark dialogue about accountability, expectations, and self-governance for lasting change in their brotherhood.

The good news is that once you learn more about yourself it gets easier. In this session you will learn about the Johari Window as a model for giving and receiving feedback. Recommended for all undergraduates.	Bay

Leadership Styles 101: To be a successful chapter leader, we need to know what makes us tick. As individuals, we all have preferred leadership styles and we will inevitably work with other leaders in our chapters, on campus, and in our communities. We must have a good understanding of our own leadership styles, as well as foundational knowledge of the leadership styles of others. This session will allow attendees to identify their personal leadership styles, strengths and challenges, and the leadership styles of others they may work with on a regular basis. Recommended for all undergraduate members.

Maintaining A Positive Relationship with your Greek Advisor and Other Campus Partners: Your campus fraternity and sorority life staff can be one of your best advocates if the relationship is developed and maintained well. Other on-campus staff members can also help keep the chapter connected and exposed to helpful resources. Attendees will diagnose the state of their current relationship with the Greek Life Office or staff on their respective campuses, and then develop a plan for improving that relationship to benefit the chapter and the campus Greek community. Recommended for all undergraduate members.

Redondo 2

Varsity Facilitation - From Good to Great: As a chapter leader you need to be a confident facilitator. This session is a must to help you identify the characteristics of a great facilitator and identify areas where you can improve and move from okay to outstanding! Recommended for all undergraduate members.
