Play Your Card Right This September Local Businesses Offer Discounts to Library Card Holders

Franklin, Ind. – Johnson County Public Library, Greenwood Public Library and Edinburgh Wright-Hageman Public Library are teaming up to promote library usage during Library Card Sign-up Month in September.

Several Johnson County businesses will be offering a special discount to customers who present their library card during the month of September when they visit. Some of these businesses include Papa Murphy's Pizza, Chick-Fil-A, On the Border, McDonald's (Franklin I-65 & Trafalgar) and Johnny Carino's.

The smartest card in your wallet is your library card! Use your card to access articles and databases, check out books, download digital content and more!

Don't have a library card? Visit any library in Johnson County to sign up for a library card today and take advantage of rewards at local businesses during the month of September!
