

LAWRENCE M. BORST

FISCAL POLICY FELLOWSHIP

The Indiana Senate Borst Fellowship is a full-year, paid fiscal policy and research experience available to one exemplary graduate student from the Paul H. O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs at IU.

Why should I apply?

Borst Fellows gain valuable hands-on experience within state government by assisting the Senate Majority Fiscal Analysts and Senate Leadership with policy research and fiscal analysis throughout the legislative process.

What are the responsibilities?

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, tracking legislation with a fiscal impact, staffing fiscal committees, researching various policy topics, and observing all aspects of the legislative session.

FELLOWSHIP BENEFITS

Fall Semester

- ✓ $5,000 scholarship
- ✓ Flexible 20-hour work week
- ✓ Enroll fulltime in graduate classes
- ✓ Partial tuition reimbursement is available for fall semester O'Neill courses – up to 9 credit hours

Spring Semester

- ✓ $900 biweekly stipend
- ✓ Fulltime 35-hour work week (minimum)
- ✓ Enroll part-time in graduate classes
- ✓ Partial tuition reimbursement is available for spring semester O'Neill courses – up to 6 credit hours

Applications Due March 19

See reverse side for information on how to apply.

LAWRENCE M. BORST FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested students must submit applications to the IU O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs by March 19.

Qualified applicants are O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs MPA students with a minimum 3.0 grade point average and an interest in learning the state finance and budget process.

Preferred applicants will have successfully completed or should plan to try to take the public budgeting and finance, economics, and statistics courses prior to the spring semester of their fellowship or during the course of their fellowship.

To apply through the O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs, please contact Debbie Koliba.

For more information, please contact:

Debbie Koliba, MA
Director of Student Services
Paul H. O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs
Dakoliba@iupui.edu
317-274-8624

Emma Balzer
Majority Intern Director
Indiana State Senate
Emma.Balzer@iga.in.gov
317-232-7184

IndianaSenateRepublicans.com/Borst-Fellowship