- Joy McClain ('16), Author and Executive Director of Bloom Ministries, shared the news that Bloom Ministries recently purchased a beautiful piece of land conducive to spiritual growth and emotional healing that will offer a place of refuge and peace for the purpose of ministering to the weary and wounded as well as for those who seek to get away for a few hours or days to refresh their minds and bodies. Marriages in crisis, single moms, pastors, leaders—anyone needing a quiet place of rest will be encouraged and blessed to slow down and be still for a period of time. Nestled between creeks, meadows and woods, this oasis is conveniently located just east of Whiteland.

- Mark Clark ('16) has been promoted to Region Director of N2 Publishing overseeing the states of Hawaii, California, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona and parts of Texas. In his role he will recruit new franchisees in those markets, train and develop leaders, and continue to operate his publication in Center Grove.

Want to make a lasting impact in the life of a student? Franklin Education Connection is seeking professionals in the community to serve as Franklin First Scholars Mentors.

Franklin First Scholars is a new mentoring program sponsored by Franklin Education Connection. The goal of First Scholars is to connect high-potential students (“Scholars”) with professionals in the community who will serve as Mentors and help students navigate through the college planning and admission process.

The time commitment for this program is limited, but the potential impact could be great. If you have questions, please contact Ryan Waggoner at ryan.waggoner@icemiller.com. Ready to get started? Complete the Mentor Application today by clicking here!
