Note to Caregivers:

The purpose of this book is to help prepare children for a visit to the Johnson County Public Library. Reading this book before you visit the library will help your child gain familiarity with the library so they can feel comfortable during their visit.

This is my library.

It is the Clark Pleasant Branch of the Johnson County Public Library. I can go to the library to check out books, movies and more.

This is the front of my library.

When I walk into the library, I can open the doors myself or hit the blue button and the doors will open automatically.

This is the lobby of my library.

When I enter the library, I walk through the lobby to go into the library. If I need to use the restroom before I go to the library, the restroom is in the lobby.

This is the Information Desk at my library.

This is where the librarian works. The librarian wears a nametag. The librarian is very helpful. I can ask the librarian to help me find a book or movie. The librarian likes answering my questions.

At my library, the books for children are on the left. This is the children's area.

There are many books in my library. They are neat and organized and all have a space on the shelf where they belong. My library has rules. I will talk quietly. I will walk. I will stay with my grown-up.

There are many chairs at my library.

When I find a book I like, I can sit in a chair and read it. Sometimes when there are lots of children here, the children's area can be noisy and busy. People are talking and playing.

These are the toys at my library.

I can play with the toys at the library. When I am finished playing, I will put the toys away neatly.

My library has computers.

I can use some of the computers to find books and movies at the library. On the children's computers, I can play games with my grown-up.

My library has quieter spaces.

I can visit a quieter space if the library gets too noisy.
I can also ask the librarian at the Information Desk for the sensory room kit.

This is the restroom at my library.

The restroom is in the lobby. I wash my hands when I am finished. The air dryer is automatic and I might hear a loud sound when someone uses it. I can also use paper towels to dry my hands.

This is the program room at my library.

On special days, there are storytimes at the library.

When it is time for storytime, this is where I will go.
The librarian will read to me and we will sing songs together.
Storytime is fun and sometimes it is noisy. Some days there are other programs here, too.

I go to the Information Desk to check out my materials.

When I am ready to leave the library, I need to bring the items I want to borrow to the Circulation Desk. I will use my library card to checkout my items. Sometimes there is a line and I will be patient as we wait our turn. I can use the self-checkout machine to check out my own things. Every time I scan a book or movie, it makes a beep. The librarian can also check out my books. I will hear lots of beeping sounds at this desk.

This is the book return at my library.

When it is time to return my books, I will put them carefully in the book drop. There are two book drops outside, too. One is on the side of the building and one is by the front door. I can return my books here on days when I'm not going inside.

I am ready to go home.

Sometimes when I leave the library, I will hear an alarm beep. It is loud, but I don't have to worry. It means that someone forgot to check out a book before they left.

I had fun at the library.
I will come back soon when it is time to return the items I checked out and find new books and movies.
I hope to visit again soon!
