

February Program Day—Social Services & Healthy Lifestyles

Thank you to our February Program Day Underwriters

Getting to Know the Class of 2017

Jessica Daugherty

Facility Administrator at Tara Treatment Center

Family: Husband, Shawn; Son, Dylan age 6

Where do you live: Prince's Lakes

What is your favorite LJC moment or lesson to date: I really enjoyed the opening retreat. It was great to get to know everyone and learn more about different styles of leadership and what motivates people.

Number one skill you practice that makes you successful: Persistence! I don't quit, even when I really want to.

Last book you read. Do you recommend: I just finished reading Lean In: Women, Work and the Will to Lead by Sheryl Sandberg. I enjoyed it and would highly recommend it for women who are pursuing leadership roles while trying to pursue the ever-elusive balance between work and family.

Something on your bucket list: Travel. Specifically, Italy, Greece and the South Pacific.

What things do you not like to do: Grocery shopping, cooking, cleaning out my car!

Anne Sutton

Executive Director at Humane Society of Johnson County

Family: Husband of 23 years and two kids; Ella and Harry

Where do you live: Greenwood/Center Grove

What is your favorite LJC moment or lesson to date: Myers Briggs. It was fun to self reflect and learn so much about others personalities. It's what makes the world go round!

What or who inspires you: My husband and kids.

Number one skill you practice that makes you successful: Positivity!

Favorite Quote: I am going to make everything around me beautiful, that will be my life.

—Eloise De Wolfe

Last book you read. Do you recommend: The Help, absolutely recommend.

What movie are you looking forward to seeing: LaLa Land

Hobbies and interests outside of work: Vintage markets, farmers market, creating and travel.

Something on your bucket list: Ellen Show

When have you been most satisfied in your life: Professionally—being hired as the executive director. Personally—my kids being happy!

Tell me about a project or accomplishment that you consider to be the most significant in your career: Receiving the big grant from the Johnson County Community Foundation.

What is your superpower, or what is your spirit animal: Dog!

Favorite pizza: Any—minus anchovies

Favorite restaurant: Café Patachou

If you could be on one game show what would it be: Hollywood Squares

Name one word to describe you: Happy

Getting to Know the Class of 2017

Kimberly Smith

Executive Director – Johnson County Senior Services

Family: Married to Steve for 34 years; Daughter, Lauren (24) ASL Interpreter at Walt Disney World; Harrison, (22) graduated from College December 2016, Professional Aviation/Pilot & Flight Instructor

Where do you live: Franklin

What is your favorite LJC moment or lesson to date: Well, I have many favorite lessons from each time we have met. However, if I have to choose I would have to say Media day because I was taken completely outside of my comfort zone (which is a great place to grow). I also have completely enjoyed our project group time! It has been an incredible blessing being a part of the LJC Class of 2017 to be surrounded by individuals that are not only gifted but are also passionate about making a difference in our community is a wonderfully rare experience.

Number one skill you practice that makes you successful: Integrity

Favorite quote: “What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.” Ralph Waldo Emerson Life Verse- Be joyful always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you... 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Last book you read. Do you recommend: Outstanding Leadership by Stan Toler. Yes, I would recommend this book. It is a quick read and contains tools to help one become a transformational leader and to help individuals fulfill their God-given purpose.

What movie are you looking forward to seeing and why: Please don't judge, but I seriously love all things Disney so on March 17th Disney's "Beauty and the Beast" is being released.

Hobbies and interests outside of work: Spending time with family and friends, traveling, deep sea fishing, cooking, reading, swimming, and spending time on a beach.

When have you been most satisfied in your life: Honestly, daily to wake up each morning knowing I have an opportunity to make a positive difference in the lives of others is truly a blessing!

What is your favorite restaurant: The Snook Inn on Marco Island, FL, a favorite for over 30 years, great food and a beautiful view.

Tim Settles

Analytical Product Specialist for Endress+Hauser

Family: Wife Paige Robbins, married for 27 years; 2 sons Trevor (25) and Austin (24)

Where do you live: Center Grove, Unincorporated White River Township

What is your favorite LJC moment or lesson to date: I liked the square game where we could not talk or take pieces from others. Very thought provoking for me.

What or who inspires you : I am inspired by my desire to learn something new every day. I feel that if you are not learning you are not living.

Favorite quote (I have two): Where you spend your money says more about you than how you vote and Actions speak louder than words.

Last book you read. Do you recommend : I am not a book reader but I am reading American Canopy: Trees, Forests and the Making of a Nation by Eric Rutkow. This book is very interesting in showing how America was shaped and formed by trees.

Hobbies and interests outside of work: I enjoy mentoring the Center Grove High School robotics team. It is very rewarding to see the students grow in their skills and confidence. I also like to visit different breweries and sample the many different styles, Scottish Ale's & Irish Red's being my favorite followed closely by Belgium Doubles & Quads.

Something on your bucket list: To visit Italy and see the areas where my mother's family came from.

What is your perfect pizza: Veggie Supreme with grilled chicken added.

Getting to Know the Class of 2017

Kathleen Anderson

Community Prevention Specialist/Faculty at Indiana Prevention Resource Center at Indiana University, Bloomington

Family: Fiancé, Andrew; Dogs, Hazel & Sam; and cat Muffet

Where do you live: Greenwood/Center Grove

What is your favorite LJC moment or lesson to date: The Cantastic 7 Johnson County Can Build, of course! Our community project was extremely successful this past January, and it was great to see all of the hard work pay off and to spend the day with my fantastic team!

Favorite quote: "The secret of happiness is to see all the marvels of the world, and never to forget the drops of oil on the spoon." ~from The Alchemist by Paul Coelho and "For a long time it seemed to me that life was about to begin-real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life. This perspective has helped me to see that there is no way to happiness. Happiness is the way. So treasure every moment you have and remember that time waits for no one." -Alfred D Souza

Tell me about a project or accomplishment that you consider to be the most significant in your career: In late 2015, I started a nonprofit and supported a local substance use prevention coalition in their federal grant application. In September 2016, we found out the coalition (and the nonprofit) was awarded the $125,000 a year grant to continue and build upon substance use prevention in the county. Fulfilling a bucket list item of starting a nonprofit, combined with being a part of the coalition effort has been incredibly satisfying and inspiring over the past year.

What is your favorite restaurant: I was born and raised in Missouri, so most of the "favorite restaurants" that pop into mind are in Springfield or Columbia Missouri. BUT if you're ever in Columbia, you MUST visit Shakespear's Pizza, and if you're in Springfield you should check out either DiGiaCinto's Italian Restaurant or Hinode (Japanese Steakhouse).

If you could appear on one game show, what would you choose and why: My fiancé and I have decided that we should go on "the Wall" and already have our strategy worked out!

Name of a local business you utilize personally or professionally that provides an outstanding service: I enjoy coffee, and for the first two years I was in Indiana I searched for the perfect, local coffee shop. And then I found it in Coffeehouse Five, and it's wonderful. Bottomless cup of coffee, good breakfast sandwiches, and comfortable couches to sit and work all day long – plus it's a "for benefit" coffeehouse, where the net revenue goes back into the community to make families stronger!

Plenary Sessions

The Power of Innovation in Action—Tatiana Kovalou & Brenda Baily-Hughes

Innovation: a mighty tool that fosters new ideas, increases employee satisfaction, and keeps you one-step ahead in a competitive market. No one questions the value of innovation. But HOW do we stir our creative juices in order to innovate? How do we convince others that our innovations are great ideas worth an investment of time and resources? Join us in this fun, highly interactive session to experiment with two specific design thinking tools proven to flex your creative muscles. Practice and get immediate feedback on your influence skills.

How To Build an Innovative Culture—Jeb Banner

Jeb Banner is CEO and co-founder of SmallBox an Indianapolis based creative consultancy founded in 2006 as well as CEO and co-founder of Boardable, a board management software company founded in 2016. Jeb is the founder of Musical Family Tree, a nonprofit dedicated to spreading Indiana music, as well as a co-founder and past chair of the Speak Easy, an entrepreneurial co-working nonprofit located in Indianapolis. Jeb will share how he has embraced innovation across multiple business arenas.

Embrace Your Inner Weirdo—INDYPROV

INDYPROV is Indianapolis' only Emmy-nominated improv comedy troupe. This group will engage the audience with a training on how to apply improv techniques to help your team be more creative and solve problems differently. A fun and interactive way to finish a day of pushing outside your comfort zone.

Power of Innovation Leadership Symposium will also include an opportunity to choose between four break-out sessions throughout the day. Lunch is provided. For more information, please contact Kelsey Kasting at kkasting@franklincollege.edu or visit our website at www.leadershipjohnsoncounty.org

FRANKLIN COLLEGE

CONNECT

FC to Host Traveling Exhibition

Franklin College invites you to take advantage of a unique opportunity that will present itself later this spring. A traveling exhibition, Changing America: The Emancipation Proclamation, 1863 and the March on Washington, 1963, will be housed in the Richardson Chapel from March 23 to May 3. The exhibition stems from a collaboration between the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture, the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, and the American Library Association (ALA), and was funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). It will be free and open to the public.

The exhibit focuses on those two significant moments in US history, it also highlights the work of social movements for advancing equality, the contested meanings of freedom in US past, and the lived experiences and leadership of black Americans.

Franklin College is the only site in Indiana and only one of 50 sites nationwide, to host this exhibit. For more information, please contact Meredith Clark-Wiltz, Assistant Professor of History, Franklin College at mclark-wiltz@franklincollege.edu or by calling (317) 738-8769.

Film Earns Prestigious Award at Santa Barbara International Film Festival

When The Good Catholic debuted at the Santa Barbara International Film Festival on Feb. 3, 2017, Gordon Strain, associate professor and theatre department chair, had no idea his work on the film would lead to it receiving the Panavision Spirit Award for Independent Cinema.

Strain slipped into a new role during the winter of 2015. He took a temporary hiatus from teaching to serve as the production designer for The Good Catholic.

The feature-length romantic comedy was filmed in Bloomington, Ind., and features veteran actors Danny Glover (Lethal Weapon, The Color Purple) and John C. McGinley (Scrubs, Platoon) as well as Zachary "Zach" Spicer, a Greencastle, Ind., native. The film was produced by Pigasus Pictures, a New York-based film company, co-owned and operated by Spicer and friend John Armstrong. Their friend, Paul Shoulberg, wrote the film, based on the true events of his parents' love story. His father was a priest when he met and fell in love with his future wife.

Strain met Shoulberg, Spicer and Armstrong while attending Indiana University.

Congratulations Gordon!
