BIOGRAPHY

State Sen. John B. Crane has represented Hoosiers of central Indiana since 2016. As a state senator, Crane represents Senate District 24, which includes portions of Hendricks and Putnam counties.

Crane serves as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Education and Career Development, and as a member of the Senate Committees on Elections; Family and Children Services; Homeland Security and Transportation; Pensions and Labor; and Veterans Affairs and The Military.

Professionally, Crane is the CEO of JBC Leadership Strategies, a leadership coaching and consulting organization that helps leaders get better at being their best. Previously, he also founded Sagamore Leadership Initiative, Inc., a leadership training program for next generation leaders focused on character development and social impact. Crane received a bachelor's degree in history and psychology from Taylor University and a master's degree in communications and culture from Trinity International University.

Crane and his wife Jean are actively involved at Connection Pointe Christian Church.

They reside in Avon with their four children.
