

STATE SENATOR ERIC BASSLER

SENATE DISTRICT 39

BIOGRAPHY

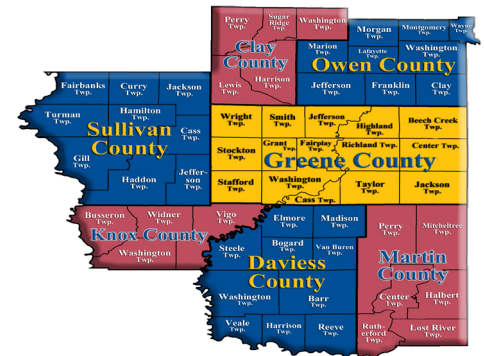

Indiana State Sen. Eric Bassler has represented Hoosiers in Senate District 39 at the Statehouse since his election to the Senate in 2014. Senate District 39 includes Daviess, Greene, Martin and Sullivan counties, and portions of Clay, Knox and Owen counties.

Bassler is the chair of the Senate School Funding Subcommittee, ranking member of the Senate Committee on Environmental Affairs, and a member of the Senate Committee on Appropriations and Education and Career Development.

Professionally, he is a financial advisor at Edward Jones in Washington, Indiana. He was previously a senior credit advisor at Bannock Consulting in England, Armenia, Russia and Kazakhstan, and a business development consultant for the United States Peace Corps, where he worked in Ukraine and Albania. He has worked as a program manager for the Bank Administration Institute in Chicago and as a loan officer and administration officer for First Citizens Banks in Michigan City. Bassler has also served as an adjunct professor of economics at Indiana University Northwest. He holds a bachelor's degree from Indiana University in chemistry and psychology and a master's degree in economics.

Bassler's civic involvement goes beyond his service in the General Assembly. He is a council member at-large for the City of Washington Common Council and a member of the City of Washington Board of Public Works and Safety. He is also a member of several organizations and boards including the Catholic Education Endowment Board, the Daviess County Community Foundation, the Daviess County United Way, the Daviess County YMCA, the Edward Jones Leadership Team, the Leadership Daviess County Board and the Purdue Extension 4-Community Projects Board.

Bassler and his wife, Julie, reside in Washington with their three daughters and two sons.
