JCPL Celebrates 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten Finishers
Special Guest Appearance from Llama of “Llama Llama Red Pajama”

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Bring your child to celebrate their participation in the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program at one of our parties.

Meet the character Llama from Anna Dewdney’s book “Llama Llama Red Pajama.” Children who have completed their goal will be recognized for their accomplishment.

Join us for parties at these branches:

- Franklin Branch – Monday, May 6, at 6 p.m.
- Clark Pleasant Branch – Wednesday, May 8, at 2 p.m.
- Trafalgar Branch – Thursday, May 9, at 4:30 p.m.
- White River Branch – Saturday, May 11, at 10:30 a.m.

All preschoolers are welcome at these programs. Haven’t registered for 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten yet? Sign up at pageafterpage.org/1000-books-before-kindergarten and see what it’s all about.

Johnson County Public Library would like to recognize HomeBank as our first ever title sponsor for our Explore Summer Program. We are grateful for HomeBank’s generous donation of $12,000 to expand our 2019 summer programming.
