

Showcasing 1431 square feet, the Monroe is a three-bedroom, two-bathroom home with many terrific features. The open concept living room, kitchen, and dining room separate the master suite from the two spare bedrooms for added privacy. The kitchen has all the storage needed with its substantial walk-in pantry. The master suite offers a double sink vanity and spacious walk-in closet. Other standout features include a large utility with bench and extra storage cabinets and a kitchen island.
