Celebrate Earth Day at Your Library

Franklin, Ind. – Receive a tree, create a craft and learn about solar energy and prairie science as we celebrate Earth Day this spring.

STEM for Adults: Solar Energy: Yes You Can! at the White River Branch on April 13
Curious about alternative power but have no idea how to start? Johnson Melloh Solutions will show how it all works. From one panel to a larger system, there are ways to save money using clean energy.

Love Our Home: Organic Gardening at the Trafalgar Branch on April 18
If you find the smell of rich earth invigorating, wait and see how your plants will like it. Learn the philosophy behind organic gardening as well as tips and tricks to that will make your garden bloom with healthier food and plants.

Earth Day Movie: “The Lorax” at the Trafalgar Branch April 19
Celebrate Earth Day with Dr. Seuss’ classic, “The Lorax.” We’ll read the book, watch the movie and learn how to care for our own Truffula trees. Snacks will be provided.

Earth Day Celebration at Franklin’s Urban Forest/Province Park on April 22
Join the Johnson County Planet Partners for a local and free celebration of Earth Day! The event will be held at Province Park and the Urban Forest in Franklin from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be family-friendly environmental programs and projects, tree giveaways, food vendors and more!

Earth Day Crafts at the Clark Pleasant Branch on April 22
Celebrate Earth Day by creating unique crafts from recycled materials. Drop in any time between 2-4 p.m. and start crafting!

Prairie Science at the Trafalgar Branch on May 9
Every year, thousands of endangered monarch butterflies make their way through Indiana, sampling the sweet flowers that grow in our state. Get your hands dirty as we plant flowers as a treat for these amazing guests.
