

TOM GRISWOLD

Tom Griswold has become one of the most recognized names in radio – or as his staff refers to him, “the name on the hat.” Tom stumbled into a bar one evening in Petoskey, MI, and started chatting with the bartender, Bob Kevoian. That chance meeting would spark the birth of The BOB and TOM Show.

From there, the world got to know Tom as the Ivy League educated neurotic that always has an opinion and retort at the ready. Tom leads the room each morning during the four-hour show. He’s also one of the best at conducting interviews with any well-known public figure. For decades, Tom has entertained millions by just being him.

Born in Cleveland, Tom went to Columbia University in New York City earning a degree in English Literature. He is the father of seven children. Two of his sons (Sam & Willie) followed in his footsteps of comedy writing/stand-up and now work for the show. In his free time, Tom loves being with his family and two golden retrievers. When not at home, he looks forward to hosting various charity events.
