WE GIVE AWAY OVER $10,000 IN ONE HOUR

How it Works

View a 60-second video explanation of how 100+ Women Who Care works at www.100wwc.org/how-it-works/

- Each woman commits to $500 each year for charitable purposes
- Each year $100 of that $500 is deposited into the 100+ Women Who Care charitable fund at the Johnson County Community Foundation. We access the fund for minor administrative expenses and future community needs.
- The remaining $400 is paid in $100 grantee donations at each quarterly meeting.
- Every member can nominate a local 501(c)(3) organization which provides programs and services for Johnson County residents.
- Three nominations are drawn at random each meeting.
- A 100+ Women Who Care member advocate makes a 5-minute presentation on behalf of the nominee.
- All members in attendance, or via proxy, vote for the nonprofit they believe most worthy of that quarterly grant.

The chosen nonprofit receives our $100 donations as a "no-strings-attached" grant for more than $10,000.
