Find Tax Help at Your Library

Learn About Tax Law Changes

Franklin, Ind. – Tax season is quickly approaching and Johnson County Public Library is here to help you prepare.

The library offers most paper tax forms, online form printing, internet access for online tax preparation, books and reference material.

JCPL also provides an annual Tax Law Changes program. Learn about upcoming tax law changes at the White River Branch Jan. 3 or at the Franklin Branch Jan. 5.

The AARP Tax-Aide program will be providing free tax preparation for low- and middle-income taxpayers at all four JCPL branches in February and March. Appointments can be made in person or by phone starting on January 3.
