

STATE SENATOR RON ALTING

SENATE DISTRICT 22

BIOGRAPHY

State Sen. Ron Alting was born and raised in Lafayette. He graduated from Lafayette Jefferson High School and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2001. Alting was also a part of the 1974 Lafayette Jefferson High School state finals basketball team.

Alting began his college career at Greenville University in Greenville, Illinois, where he was vice president of his class. Alting continued his education at Purdue University, earning a bachelor's degree. While earning his degree, he served as program director for the YMCA in Lafayette for three years. After graduating from Purdue, Alting went into entrepreneurship, owning restaurants, nightclubs and other various businesses throughout his life.

In 1995, Alting began his career as a public servant on the Lafayette City Council. He served as council president until 1998 when he was elected to represent Senate District 22 in the Indiana State Senate.

In 2011, Alting was appointed chair of the Senate Committee on Public Policy. In this position, he has presided over important legislation that has affected the lives of Hoosiers across the state. He also serves as Senate Majority Floor Leader Emeritus and previously served on the National Conference of State Legislators Education Committee.

He is a nine-time "Legislator of the Year" recipient. Alting has also received the prestigious Indiana American Legion Distinguished Public Service award four times – the most of any state legislator currently serving.

Alting's civic involvement goes beyond his service in the General Assembly. He is a member of the Sons of the American Legion – Post 11. He is also a former member of the board of directors for several organizations, including Meals on Wheels, Bright National Bank, Tippecanoe Arts Federation, Purdue University Liberal Arts Alumni Association, and the Lafayette Symphony Orchestra. Alting also serves as a Major in the Indiana Guard Reserve.

Alting supports and volunteers at many non-profits in the community, including local homeless shelters, soup kitchens, art centers, mental health facilities, public school foundations, private school fundraisers, the YMCA, Best Buddies and others.

Outside the Senate, he is a business development leader at Trane Technologies, a business of Ingersoll Rand.

Alting currently resides in Lafayette with his family.
