Union County Business Owner and Supporter of all Union County
Activities and Endeavors

“Malcolm Miles is an institution in Union County, Indiana. His reputation as a quality human being began in the hallways and on the basketball court at Short High School. He was a dedicated Short High School student-athlete whose commitment to team play was unequalled. In all of life’s arenas, you could always count on Malcolm, from his earliest days and throughout his career as an independent business leader. His commitment to his community during his active life deserves the admiration of all.”
