

STATE SENATOR JOHN B. CRANE

SENATE DISTRICT 24

BIOGRAPHY

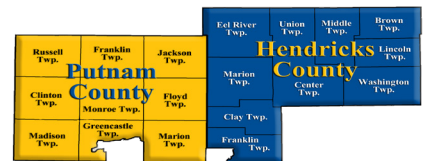

State Sen. John B. Crane has represented Hoosiers of central Indiana since 2016. As a state senator, Crane represents Senate District 24, which includes portions of Hendricks and Putnam counties.

Crane serves as Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Education and Career Development, as well as, a member of the Senate Committees on Elections; Family and Children Services; and Pensions and Labor. Crane also serves as an Assistant Majority Caucus Chair for the Senate Republican leadership team.

Professionally, Crane is the founder and CEO of Sagamore Leadership Initiative, Inc., a leadership training program for next generation leaders focused on character development and social impact. Crane received a bachelor's degree in history and psychology from Taylor University and a master's degree in communications and culture from Trinity International University.

Outside the Statehouse, Crane's civic and community engagement includes involvement with Sheltering Wings, being a Cook Fellow at the Acton Institute and an original member of the Colson Fellows Program. Crane is also the program director for the Hoosier Leadership Series, which educates Indiana leaders on policy and culture.

Sen. Crane and his wife Jean have been active members at Kingsway Christian Church since 2008. They reside in Avon with their four children.
