

STATE SENATOR RANDY HEAD

SENATE DISTRICT 18

BIOGRAPHY

Indiana State Sen. Randy Head has represented North Central Indiana since his election to the General Assembly in 2008. Currently, he serves Cass, Fulton and Miami counties as well as portions of Carroll, Kosciusko and Marshall counties.

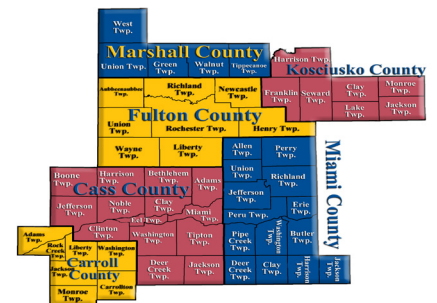

Head is Chairman of the Senate Committee on Civil Law and serves on the Senate Committees on Local Government and Health and Provider Services.

During his time as a legislator, Head has advanced new laws breaking down license reciprocity barriers for social workers, fighting Indiana’s youth suicide rate, creating school safety standards for students, fixing unintended consequences of Indiana’s laws on e-liquid manufacturing, and eliminating loopholes that gave breaks to habitual criminals and child molesters.

Head is an attorney at Tribbett Law Office in Logansport and has served as the Logansport City Attorney. He received a bachelor’s degree from Wabash College and a Juris Doctor degree from Indiana University School of Law.

In his community, Head is involved in many civic organizations. He is a former board member and president of the Cass County Community Foundation and served on the Indiana State Bar Association’s Pro Bono Committee. Presently, he is a member of the Indiana Farm Bureau and Logansport Rotary Club and serves as Co-Chair of the Task Force on Substance Abuse and Mental Health for Children.

He and his wife, Lisa, live in Logansport. They are members of the Main Street United Methodist Church.
