

UCHS ANNOUNCEMENTS

March 9, 2020

School News: Attention Juniors: Wednesday March 11th, there will be NO PARKING in the junior lot due to a scheduled event at the 4-H building. Parking can be found on the surrounding streets.

Congratulations to FCCLA for their accomplishments at state conference this weekend. Ellie Pitcher and Kylie Hetzer received bronze medals. Autumn Peck and Haley Hensley receives silver medals. Madi Neal received 3 golds and 2 silvers. She was also named an alternate to compete at nationals in Washington DC in July. Jennie Mescher received 4 golds and 2 silvers. She received Power of One Recognition. She is also the first Union County member to receive the Ultimate Leader Degree. Congratulations FCCLA!

UCHS Student Council Candidates will address their prospective Classes after Spring Break. A specific date will be announced soon.

UCHS Musical starts Thursday, tickets are still available in the front office.

GUIDANCE NEWS:

FFA NEWS: Next chapter Meeting: Tuesday March 10th @ 3:30pm

District Convention is Friday March 13th will be leaving after school.

ATHLETIC NEWS: The athletic training room will be closed this Wednesday through Saturday. If you regularly receive athletic training treatment, please see Brian before Wednesday to receive your plan for the week.

Cheer practice for tonight has been moved to 5:30 not 7

Track DISTANCE runners practice is at Whitewater today.

Girls tennis practice begins Monday March 16 after school. If you have any questions see Mr. Blessing.

Congratulations to Union County HS Orienteering team. On Saturday, the team easily took first place in the Ohio Valley School Orienteering Championships in northern Kentucky, with the team of Priscilla Kelley, Ethan Powers, Wyatt Isaac, and Peyton Torres-Cruz. Priscilla Kelley won first place overall. Ethan Powers was first place male, just 18 seconds behind Priscilla. Wyatt Isaac and Peyton Torres-Cruz were 3rd and 4th place males.

The team also finished in first place in season standings for the Tri-State Regional Orienteering League. Individually, Priscilla Kelley won first place in varsity female and Ethan Powers was first in junior varsity male and second in varsity male.

Orienteering will have practice today after school.

