Help Wherever You Turn

Resource Guide

BUTLER COUNTY

FAMILY & CHILDREN
FIRST COUNCIL

www.ButlerFCFC.org

The members of the Butler County Family & Children First Council are pleased to launch our “No Wrong Door Initiative.”

This initiative has the following vision:

Butler County citizens can easily obtain comprehensive information, and streamlined access to personalized supports and services that promote freedom of choice from wherever they enter the system, with warmth and respect from the servicing provider.

Customer Service Quick Reference

Consumer Inquiry Protocol: A simple series of steps to be followed in order to understand the service needs of a customer, leading to accurate service referrals.

- * Engagement: Staff members will listen and help callers communicate their needs and frame their questions or requests for assistance.
- * Direction: Staff members will give the callers a name and number of the appropriate agency that can address their issue(s).
- * Assurance: Staff members will inform callers that if the agency they were directed to is not the correct one, or it is unable to meet their need, they should call us back and we will work with them again. “Let us know how things turn out.”

Customer First Standards: Standards of employee interaction that include the following related to NWD.

- * Phone messages received will be responded to (if requested) in a timely manner - two business days - even if just to acknowledge receipt. An estimate of time to resolve the problem will be given if applicable.
- * Respond to customers in a courteous manner, as they deserve to be treated with respect.
- * Employees will take responsibility for providing a solution and/or options to the customer's request.
- * Provide accurate and understandable solutions/options to customer requests or direct the customer to the appropriate person who may have knowledge in the subject matter.
