15. Superintendent's Comments

Steve Jones commented that Chartwell's was a great choice and he is hearing a lot of good things. Pushing for everyone to fill out the free and reduced applications so all students can benefit.

Cell phone ban is going great. Kids are socializing with one another. Steve said he is partaking in challenge day.

Steve talked to two seniors and one said they loved their schedule, the other was not happy because she can't get into work based learning. Mrs. Meek was able to help with that.

Steve also commented that we have 17 out of district kids.

16. Board Comments

Betsy Rudnick said she has received feedback that the whole aura has changed, making it fun again.

Matt Snyder gave a shout out to the maintenance and custodial staff. He would like to get back to student recognition at the board meetings.

17. Adjournment at 8:20 pm.
