RECOGNITION OF VISITOR/PATRON COMMENTS: None

DATA TALK:

Luke Skobel, ICHS Principal, highlighted strategies the ICHS will use next year as well as data they received from the end of the last school year.

DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP PRESENTATION:

Mike Bottorff, Director of Technology, and Rachel Emehiser, ICMS Technology Intergration Specialist NHJ has recently earned recognition as a Common Sense Certified District: Digital Citizenship, an honor that recognizes our efforts in teaching digital citizenship to young people and engaging the entire community in this important discussion. This recognition is provided by Common Sense Education, part of a national nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of kids and families by providing the trustworthy information, education, and independent voice they need to thrive in a world of media and technology.

Issues that emerge from this 24/7 "connected culture," such as cyberbullying, privacy lapses, and uncertainty about which information to trust online, are surfacing both in schools and at home. He said students needed training and instruction in technology.

The curriculum was taught to both the Intermediate and Middle School.
