BIOGRAPHY

State Sen. Mike Gaskill has served as senator since his election in 2018. He represents the newly drawn Senate District 25, which includes Madison County and portions of Hamilton County.

Gaskill serves as ranking member of the Senate Committees on Environmental Affairs and Insurance and Financial Institutions, and as member of the Senate Committees on Judiciary and Tax and Fiscal Policy.

Gaskill is a graduate of Pendleton Heights High School and earned his bachelor's degrees in accounting and computer science from Anderson University.

Since 1993, he has owned and operated an insurance and financial services business in Anderson. Prior to that, Gaskill worked as a computer programmer, accountant and later the systems manager for Praxair Surface Technologies.

He is an active member of the First Baptist Church of Anderson.

Gaskill and his wife, Kelly, reside in Pendleton. They have three children and seven grandchildren.
