

October 9 in Greencastle 11am-2pm
“Building a Strategic Board”
Presenter: Lanton Lee

Board best practices aren't just for newbies! Whether you're new to a board of directors or have served for years, this session is a great way to get a handle on what's expected, how board service looks different today compared to even just a decade ago, and map your personal board journey.

Lanton is the Area Director of Kiwanis International.

Online Registration is now open! This year's series is an exciting one; no matter the topic, every session is rooted in Steven Covey's The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People so that you can create a personal and professional leadership growth plan. We have an incredible line-up of new presenters for you too! As always, you can select one or some of the sessions at only $15 each or save by selecting all the sessions for only $100. For your convenience, every step in registration can even be taken care of online now.

“Next Level Leadership”
Presenter: Susan Decker

Effective leaders are visionaries who inspire others to bring their best to the game. Irrespective of your leadership experience, this session will bring a fresh perspective by exploring the universal traits strong leaders share and giving you the tools to create a personal power plan.

Susan serves as a senior governance consultant for BoardSource in Washington D.C. She is also the Director of the Master of Leadership Development program at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College.

March 13 in Crawfordsville 11am-2pm
“Marketing Magic”
Presenter: Leslie Galbreath and T.A. Providers

Good marketing is more than a slick ad or a well-placed billboard; it takes messaging that resonates and intentionality. Not a how-to, but a hands-on, this session will walk you through creating a realistic marketing and communications schedule that your organization can actually execute.

Leslie is CEO, Marketing Engineers and Magenta Marketing Communications.

April 10 in Crawfordsville 11am– 2pm
“Measure What Matters”
Presenter: Laura Macknick

While the money your organization raises or the number of people who benefit from your services is important, the difference you make is the metric that will really make yours a stand out organization! Learn simple but powerful ways to evaluate impact and communicate it to others.

Laura is founder and President of Macknick Philanthropy Advisors.

“From Paper to Practice”
Presenter: Tonja Stokes

Have you sat through strategy session after strategy session only to have your strategic plan end up as a door stop? Dust it off, give it a re-read, then join us to get real advice about how to actually implement your strategic plan and see some results!

Tonja is the Field Director for Indiana United Ways.

August 7 in Greencastle 11am-2pm
“Nonprofit Finance Demystified”
Presenter: Bill Stanczykiewicz

Are nonprofit finances a mystery? Is planned giving baffling? This session is dedicated to unraveling the language on nonprofit finance, exploring planned giving and endowments, and interpreting financial documents and reports for sound decision making. Learn how to evaluate funding sources based on the costs and benefits associated.

Bill serves as Director of The Fundraising School and as Senior Lecturer at Indiana University.

Enriching Life. Strengthening Community.

September 11 in Greencastle 11 am-2pm
“Data in a Digital Age”
Presenter: Lucia Downton and Panelists

Paperless is here to stay. Yet, few nonprofits have the technical know-how or funds for state-of-the-art technology to protect digital data. At the same time, we are legally obligated to protect sensitive information. The question, then, is: in the age of ransomware, malware, and limited IT dollars, how should nonprofits respond?
