SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
Methodist Family Medicine Residency

March 23, 2022

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you to express interest in to be nominated for the Indiana Academy of Family Physicians as a member at large director.

I have worked in residency education throughout my entire career and have always embraced opportunities to improve the specialty of family medicine. I began by career following residency as a core faculty member at Indiana University in 2013 and grew to become the associate program director in 2016 and later the program director in 2019. I currently practice full scope family medicine which includes hospitalist medicine, low risk and high-risk obstetrics including surgical obstetrics, and full spectrum outpatient care in an underserved clinic in downtown Indianapolis. I want to ensure continued growth in the field of family medicine in the state of Indiana and also desire to see our specialty maintain high quality standards as we move into the future. I appreciate your consideration.
