

ANTICIPATED SERVICES DESCRIPTION

Mobility Services:	Assistance or training related to personal mobility for individuals with physical or sensory disabilities including destination training, map reading and training in the use of technological aids.
Specialized Transportation Svcs:	Acquisition of specialized transportation, including special public transportation, essential for employment, education, community living, or receipt of other services.
Technological Aids:	Evaluation for and provision of equipment, machines, prostheses, aids, and adaptive devices necessary for employment education, community living, or receipt of other services, including equipment and devices for communication and mobility.
Medical/Medically Related Services:	Surgery, medication, physical or occupation therapy, and other medical treatments or services related to the disability.
Communication Services:	Assistance and training related to the act of communication, including speech/language therapy, interpreter services, reader services, Braille training, and tactile interpreting services.
Independent Living Services:	Training or assistance in performing basic daily living activities (e.g., cooking, laundry, hygiene, transportation, time management, financial management) to enable individuals with disabilities to live with maximum independence in community.
Residential Living Services:	Programs to place or maintain individuals with disabilities in residential facilities (e.g., group homes) or in structured community living arrangements (e.g., supervised apartments), including daily living skills training and related services.
Social Skills Training Services:	Training in the development of interpersonal social skills and social competencies essential to employment, education, and community living.
Mental Health Services:	Personal adjustment counseling, sex education or counseling, psychiatric or psychological therapy, substance abuse programs, and other mental health services.
Vocational Training and Job Placement Services:	Vocational assessment and time-limited services that include simple job referral and placement, vocational education programs, on-site training and placement, and short-term financial assistance.
Ongoing Employment-Related Services:	Vocational assessment and long-term or periodic services necessary to maintain individuals with disabilities in suitable employment, including training, job coaches, supported employment programs, sheltered employment programs, and other support services related to employment.
Alternative Education Services:	Programs for continuing adult education, including Adult Basic Education (ABE), General Educational Development (GED), adult high school diploma, and adult compensatory or special education.
Services to Support Postsecondary Education:	Special services necessary to enroll individuals with disabilities in technical school, community college, college or university, and to maintain individuals in those institutions to reach specified degree level of certification; including counseling, curriculum adaptations, and academic support (note-taking services).
Recreation and Leisure Services:	Training and support to enable individuals with disabilities to engage in appropriate recreation and leisure activities.
Family Services:	Support or assistance, including counseling, to families of individuals with disabilities necessary for the rehabilitation or increased independence of the individual with a disability.
Case Management Services:	Referral, evaluation, and counseling needed to help persons with disabilities secure services; including coordination, follow-up, and advocacy to assure delivery of appropriate services.