Building an Effective Budget

Discover the tools and practices of building an effective budget and ensuring the financial sustainability of your organization for years to come. This interactive workshop will examine:

- Collaborative efforts needed to create an annual budget—What is the role of staff and board members?
- Benefits of prioritizing expenses year-to-year—How to accurately forecast expenses for future years.
- How to plan for unanticipated expenses—The process of being proactive versus reactive in budgeting.

Beth Cline is the Volunteer Engagement Senior Director for the United Way of Central Indiana. She has extensive experience in facilitation, team building and event planning at a variety of local nonprofits.
