Visit JCPL StoryWalks All Year Long Stroll Along the Trail and Read a Story

FRANKLIN, Ind. – After a few days of winter break, perhaps it's time to get the kiddos outside to get the wiggles out. JCPL StoryWalks are a great destination to learn and move at the same time!

Johnson County Public Library has five StoryWalks across the county and each location has a different story.

Read these stories at these locations:

- “No Two Alike” by Keith Baker at Country Gate Park StoryWalk in New Whiteland
- “Amazing Grace” by Mary Hoffman, illustrated by Caroline Binch at the Urban Forest StoryWalk in Franklin
