Gentlemen,

Accurate Controls would like to thank you and your staff at Pauly Jail Building Company for the opportunity to work with you on detention projects across the Country. Throughout these past years, we've successfully worked together to provide high quality installations throughout the United States.

As you know the construction process can pose many challenges, especially for us, as the security electronics trade is typically the last trade in the facilities finishing our installation, testing and certification of the security systems. Your hands on approach to coordinating the projects, your staff's technical expertise in the detention industry, and your communication with all other trades is extraordinary. Your office and field management staff has always done whatever is necessary to overcome obstacles and get the projects done on time and within budget.

Also, we congratulate you on your 160th Anniversary! This is a definite testament to the quality and dedication of your products and your team. We've worked with all of the other major detention equipment contractors across the County, and can honestly say that it has been a pleasure to be partnered with your company.

We look forward to continuing our work with Paul Jail Building Company for many years to come.

Respectfully,
