

JOSH ARNOLD

Josh Arnold is a stand-up comedian originally from St. Louis and was a frequent guest of The BOB & TOM Show before officially joining as a fulltime co-host in 2016. Josh quickly became a fan favorite as male listeners see him as a “guy’s guy” and female listeners find him to be smart and sensitive.

Josh is a savant of the English language which often leads to his sophisticated wordplay and an impressive library of puns. Prior to joining the show, Josh had a varied resume from writing, acting, and even teaching English in South Korea.

If Josh isn’t on the air or touring the country doing stand-up, you’ll most likely find him reading a book, watching hockey or enjoying/studying a movie - Film is yet another topic he is an expert on.
