2018 JCPL Author Series Kicks Off with Visit from Lisa Scottoline
New York Times, Best-selling Author to Speak at Franklin College

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Authors at JCPL is excited to announce the first author in the 2018 Author Series. New York Times best-selling author and Edgar award-winning author of 30 novels, Lisa Scottoline, will speak April 12 at 7 p.m. at Franklin College.

Lisa Scottoline is The New York Times best-selling author of 30 novels including “Exposed,” “One Perfect Lie,” “Keep Quiet,” “Think Twice” and “Dirty Blonde.”

Scottoline’s novels are known for their emotional, warm and down-to-earth characters which resonate with readers. She also writes a weekly column wither her daughter Francesca for the Philadelphia Inquirer titled “Chick Wit.”

She has served as president of Mystery Writers of America and has taught a course she developed, “Justice and Fiction” at The University of Pennsylvania Law School, her alma mater.

The first 100 JCPL cardholders to register for this event will receive a signed copy of her new book, “After Anna.” Registration for this program is online at pageafterpage.org/authors-at-jcpl.

Authors at JCPL is a program that brings popular and award-winning writers from around the country to Johnson County. Last year, Johnson County Public Library hosted four best-selling authors including Adrian Matejka, Kristy Cambron, Salina Yoon and Karin Slaughter.
