It's hard to imagine today, but most of our great-grandmothers weren't allowed to speak in public, keep their own wages, attend college, run for office, or vote. Yet today women are leaders throughout the country. How did THAT happen?

.....

Join us for Digging in Their Heels, a high-energy, eye-opening piece that tells the story of women's 72-year struggle, strategies, and perseverance in their fight for the right to vote. Told with a modern-day twist, the story keeps audiences laughing, marveling, and learning from those who paved the way for women today. Be sure to see this inspiring story before Sally heads out on her national tour!

About the speaker:

Sally is an award-winning storyteller known for pulling the audience out of their daily march and into the world and adventures of someone else.

Performing locally and on the national stage, Sally always inspires and entertains.
