WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE NON-SECRET?

Delta Upsilon is a non-secret fraternity. What does that mean? It means that DU's rituals, values and mission are all open to the public. Just like other fraternities, DU has symbols, traditions and ritual ceremonies deep in history and meaning. We are proud to share what unites us as brothers to the world. When someone asks us what Delta Upsilon stands for, we can tell them the exact answer. Why would we want to keep all that is great about DU a secret?

DU'S FOUR FOUNDING PRINCIPLES

In 1834, Delta Upsilon's founders believed they must dedicate themselves to four main principles. Nearly two centuries later, Delta Upsilon calls upon these Four Founding Principles to guide our actions, programs and policies. As a member of Delta Upsilon, brothers are asked to take these ideals as their own and use them as a guide throughout their lives.

THE PROMOTION OF FRIENDSHIP

DU members must develop confidence in themselves while learning the skills to connect and work with others in a meaningful way. This includes the active practice and intentional development of goodwill toward all communities, creating healthy relationships, fostering positive environments, and connecting with and working with others.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER

The Development of Character is intentional growth toward excellence socially, intellectually and morally, and adhering to a set of personal values to guide decision making based on an understanding of what is right and wrong. It is a commitment to constant improvement through education and reflection, as well as care and respect for others.

THE DIFFUSION OF LIBERAL CULTURE

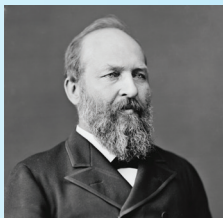

DU members must embrace lifelong learning as a means to understand, appreciate and connect with other world cultures. This means expanding the mind to understand and appreciate the perspectives, traditions, norms and cultures of others. It is openly sharing one's own culture while engaging with other cultures appropriately to facilitate the free exchange of ideas.

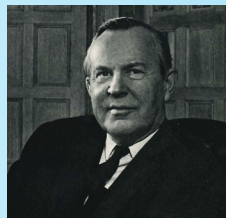

THE ADVANCEMENT OF JUSTICE

Advancing justice requires active engagement in the creation of a just world by advancing a cause one believes in. Furthermore, it is a commitment to create opportunity for all in a manner that is fair and just, and to confront that which is unjust. This will result in action to promote the common good within the community.
